

TO: OUTDOOR MEDIA

Contact: Lisa G. Cinquino
Whistle Communications
(203) 881-8381

Chamber-View® Holdings Acquired by Doug Koenig

Hamburg, PA., - Chamber-View® LLC., located in Nashua, NH manufacture of visual firearm safety products for shotguns, AR rifle platforms and pistols has been acquired by X-Ring Productions, LLC., effective June 16, 2017. Established in 2011, X-Ring Productions, LLC., owned by Doug Koenig, is a privately held U.S. based company focused on entrepreneurial product acquisition business ventures in the outdoor recreational industry.

Designed and invented by Ned Bitsack in 2013, Chamber-View empty chamber indicators are molded of 100 percent blaze orange ultra durable silicone. Once inserted into the action, the indicator enhances firearm safety, reduces accidental closings of the action and prevents debris contaminating the ejector port, magazine and barrel. Their unique design fits multi-calibers, is resistant to cleaning chemicals and non-marring to the internal and external surfaces of the firearm.

Koenig said, “As a professional shooter, hunter and father, I have always emphasized and advocated firearm safety when handling any type of firearm.” Koenig added, “Carrying on Ned’s vision to ensure firearm enthusiasts own and use this multi-function indicator is my mission and commitment to the shooting sports community.”

Chamber-View® LLC, established in 2013, is a manufacturer of visual firearm safety products. The company’s goal is to enhance public awareness and restore the confidence of safety in a firearm being used by avid shooting enthusiasts.

For information on becoming a Chamber-View retailer, or for organizations interested in the full array of safety products, contact sales@chamberview.com or call (610) 944-1078. Visit www.chamber-view.com and like us at <https://www.facebook.com/ChamberView/>.

###